2-12-Patterns day

2-19 -Multiples day-dress like a friend

2-26 PJ day

Students will learn a game at school and be encouraged to play at home with their families to support their learning.

We are working with the speaker from last year to do an online assembly or possibly come into classrooms. LV will be included.

March is reading month

Online assembly-Magic base theme

Julie Comps-organizing READ shirts

Little Caesars Fundraiser-

Money raised will be used for items for small group reading instruction based on the Orton Gillingham program

*Stephanie Christie has been named the building sub for Coolidge.

President's Report

Yearbook-order forms will be coming out. Information has already been shared on the weekly update. Yearbooks will be delivered the first week of June.

Treasurer's Report-

Fundraising has been low, but expenses are also low.

We currently have $10, 851.62 in our account. Still waiting on some teacher grants to be paid.

Other:

Coolidge will hold a virtual book fair running from March 1st-14th in conjunction with reading month. Orders will be shipped directly to families. Orders of $25 or more will have free shipping. More info about how to order will come out later this month. Discussed the possibility of having an in person book fair in May.

Chairperson-Amanda O'Loughlin (contact for more information)

Nadia- will contact The Rolling Stoves about possibly setting up a restaurant night fundraiser
Also inquired about a virtual book club after school-Mrs. Collyer to check with teachers as it is outside of school hours.
